

Summer 2024

Women's Bible Studies

Tuesday Morning Study

How Do You Walk the Walk You Talk (6 weeks—Kay Arthur) with Brenda Pamenter
Tuesdays, June 18—July 30 10-11:30 AM
Room: 124 Book Cost $7.00 Must register by June 2 to receive book

How Do You Walk the Walk You Talk is a no-homework, group study for people who are interested in learning more about what the Bible says, but who have only limited time to meet together. This study of vital passages from Ephesians highlights how Christians can live out God's priorities of unity, authenticity, holiness, forgiveness, and unconditional love. This study will include interacting with Scripture and a lot of discussion. Contact your teacher for more details.

Thursday Night Study

A Woman of Love: A Woman's Journey Through Ruth
(10 Weeks- Dee Brestin) with Helen Stansbury
Thursdays, June 6- August 22 (will not meet June 27 & July 4) 5:30-8:30 PM
Meets at Helen's home Book Cost: $12.00

Sorry, this class is currently full and closed. Ladies will enjoy a light meal, fellowship. Bible study and water aerobics This study's aim is to bring us to a deeper understanding of how much God loves us, how He calls women to be a special blessing to one another, and the awesome power of redemptive love.

Registration in the Welcome Centers
May 19—June 2 or online
<https://www.ibcwv.org/women>.
Scholarships available.

